

International Journal for Converging Technologies & Management

Invitation & Notes for Editorial Board & Reviewers

The editorial review board is a key part of International Journal of Convergence of Technologies & Management journal. Researchers and authors are invited to participate in the peer-review process of International Journal of Convergence of Technologies & Management papers if your research interest matches with the themes of Call for Papers.

Reviewers are generally expected to complete their review within two weeks period. Please return with manuscript in two weeks or find a competent alternate reviewer, if you are unable to review. Reviews should be constructive and provide feedback to the authors. The completed review form should be electronically returned to Editor-in-Chief IJCTM.

The review process is double-blind; that is, the reviewer does not know who the manuscript author(s) is and the author(s) does not know who has reviewed the manuscript. All reviewers are acknowledged on Suresh Gyan Vihar University's website, after the publication. Besides, an online certificate will be given to them.

If you would like to become a reviewer for International Journal of Convergence of Technologies & Management you should send the following information to The Editor-In-Chief at editor.ijctm@gyanvihar.org. You will receive an email shortly stating your current status as a reviewer.
