

NotificationPolicy for Govt. Funded NET-JRF candidates

Since SGVU is a research-oriented University, we always encourage research activities through different ways such as Seed Money Project Funding, Research Award Scheme, Appointment of research students as SGVU JRF, RA etc.

Since the research scholars under any Govt. funded schemes i.e. JRF/SRF/RA etc. are important stakeholders of the University and may significantly lift up the research standards of the university. To attract and facilitate the research of such candidates, University offer following benefits for the smooth conduction of such Ph.D. students:

1. A regular advertisement for the direct PhD admission for the candidates having any Govt. funded fellowships through interview (without appearing for written test) should be circulated through newspapers / social media and other ways.
2. These candidates will be allowed to get provisional admission anytime of the year.
3. The candidates with any Govt. funded scholarships / fellowships will be offered a 50% waiver of the total Fee.
4. The candidates with any Govt. funded scholarships / fellowships may apply for “SGVU Seed Money Grant” up to the amount INR 1,00,000/- once in their fellowship tenure.
5. The candidates with any Govt. funded scholarships / fellowships may avail the SGVU financial support for attending conferences/ seminars/ trainings once in their fellowship tenure.
6. The candidates with any Govt. funded scholarships / fellowships may enroll for NPTEL/ SWAYAM courses during the fellowship tenure and avail themselves of the financial benefits as per SGVY NPTEL Policy.
